UPCOMING EXAMS FOR THIS COURSE

- Regular Exam on Monday, February 09, 2026

  Time and date as well length of exam will appear here

If exam dates have been uploaded by your professor, you will see this new section listing the exam date, time, and length for the course you are scheduling an exam for

If you need clarification on how to get to this page, follow the "How to Schedule an Exam" tutorial further up on this page

Acknowledge our terms and conditions by checking the boxes

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

All test requests must be scheduled and the Testing Agreement form completed at least 3 business days before regular exams and at least 5 business days before final exams.

Please indicate that you have read and agreed to the following statements *:

- ☐ Greetings NMSU Student,
- ☐ All exam requests must be scheduled, and the Alternative Testing Agreement form completed, at least three (3) business days prior to regular exams and midterms, and at least five (5) business days prior to final exams.
- ☐ Instructors are expected to list all exam dates in advance at the beginning of the semester, even if those dates are tentative. Students are responsible for communicating proactively with their instructors regarding the need for alternative testing arrangements. The Disability Access Services (DAS) Office can provide support after the student has made an initial attempt to communicate with the instructor.
- ☐ If an exam date is missing or incorrect in the AIM Portal, students must contact their instructor immediately to resolve the issue. Exams that are not scheduled within the required timeframe through the AIM Portal will need to be taken in class using the approved accommodations.

FORM SUBMISSION

ADD EXAM REQUEST > BACK TO LIST >

Once you've completed the steps above, click add exam request